3. SNA Certificate Program – New Bridge Level Launching in July 2018

Are you ready for the launch of the new Level 2 Certificate in School Nutrition? The SNA Certificate Program helps provide professional growth for over 19,000 school nutrition professionals across the country. The new Level 2 will launch in July 2018 and will serve as a "bridge" between the current Level 1 and Level 2. The goal of this new level is to help members have a more realistic professional development path.

4. See What Members Are Saying About SNA's New Ethics Module

Discover what over 200 members have already determined is a great way to start the discussion of ethical behavior with your team, and prepare them to make the right decisions.

"I thoroughly enjoyed this training, it will be a valuable tool for all foodservice employees." Nancy Hogstad, Executive Director, SNS of Iowa.

"I love the graphics and the whole module!! Great job." -Lori Danella, Asst. Director Nutrition, Lees Summit, MO

"I enjoyed the module, it will benefit many SNA members." -Sally Spero, SNS, Child Nutrition Director, Lakeside Union SD, CA

5. No Chance of Being an April Fool When You Tune into Webinar Wednesdays!

April is no joke, we are tackling important subjects this month. On April 4th, Mark Cornthwaite with DuPont Nutrition and Health will do a deep dive into consumer trends and the clean label revolution! Join us to discover secrets for reading ingredient labels, and marketing to a Gen Z consumer group (and parents) who are hungry for low processed, highly nutritious foods. Then, on April 11, in the third installment of CEP series, we are going to hear from districts that chose to implement partial CEP and will leave time for your lingering CEP questions. Register now.

6. STEPS April Challenge: Spring into Fitness

Temperatures are rising and the plants are popping up. It's time to spring into action! Take a walk, try out a new fitness class or find a local trail near your home to add some more exercise to your daily routine. At the end of the month, be sure to add up your points and enter them online at www.schoolnutrition.org/STEPS – you could win a prize!

7. New Funding for Nutrition Programs in Omnibus Spending Bill

At a time when funding is hard to come by, the inclusion of our critical school nutrition programs in the recently passed FY2018 spending bill is a recognition by Congress of the important role our programs play in the lives of hungry children. Read the details on the new funding in this SNA news story.

8. SNA Submits Comments on Dietary Guidelines

SNA submitted comments March 30, 2018, in response to a Federal Register Notice published on February 28, 2018 – Dietary Guidelines for Americans \(DGA\): Request for Comments on Topics and Questions.

9. USDA Announces Hiring Flexibility for Small School Districts

The U.S. Department of Agriculture's (USDA) Food and Nutrition Services have proposed a Rule adding four flexibilities to the hiring standards for new school nutrition program directors in small local educational agencies (LEAs) and new school nutrition program State directors under the professional standards regulations. USDA is providing a 60-day public comment period before they develop the Final Rule. You can read the USDA press release here.

10. Reducing Error Through Improved Application Design

USDA's Food and Nutrition Service released a memo titled Reducing School Meal Certification Error through Improved Online Application Design. The memo is intended to offer guidance to States, local operators and their software vendors on strategies for leveraging the design flexibilities of online free and reduced-price school meal applications to reduce household reporting mistakes and certification errors.

11. Community Eligibility Provision: Statutory Annual Notification and Publication Requirements

USDA's Food and Nutrition Service released its annual notice regarding the Community Eligibility Provision (CEP). The memo details guidance on CEP and publication requirements and provides information on the USDA-developed reporting template.
